As a part of value addition, the college conducts Guest lecturers in the Yashwantrao Chavan Memorial Law lecture series for giving the students insights in the various legal fields besides the subjects as prescribed in the curricula.

The college had organized a guest lecture on 8th March 2021 between 10 am Ms. Sheikh Nuzrat Afroz was invited to deliver guest lecture on "Women trafficking a ever growing challenge in India".

She stated that Human trafficking, is illegal trade of humans conducted most commonly for the purposes of sexual slavery and forced labor. There are far more men in India than young women, resulting in bride trafficking, or the illegal sale of women for the purpose of marriage, which is becoming more prevalent in India. In the rural Northern states, where the sex ratio is worse than the national average, bride trafficking has become a norm. Poor communities are vulnerable to human traffickers, as they often offer better job opportunities or debt relief to lure victims. She enumerated causes and remedies relating to this burning social issue

Total 83 students attended the session. Prof. Sirsat extended vote of thanks. Prof. Sirsat and Prof. Wakade coordinated the said guest lecture.

He was instrumental in devising and finalizing various fundamental rights especially relating to equality and social justice. He advocated the concept of social democracy as well as nationalization of the big industries and land. 3

In last part of his lecture he referred speech of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar on 4th November 1949, wherein he proposed three fold formula for upholding constitutional democracy, i.e. trying to attain one's demands by constitutional methods, not to indulge in personality glorification and to give maximum importance to the constitutional morality. He concluded his lecture by appealing to the students to study the constitution in its true spirit and strive to fulfill dreams of our founding fathers. The question and answer followed the session.
