Students undertaking Moot Courts, Court Visits, Arbitration.....

1 LP 0704 Practical Training Paper I - Professional Ethics and Contempt of Court Law :

This course covers (a) legal profession in India during ancient, mediaeval, and contemporary times, (b) professional ethics or obligations, (c) the Advocate Act, 1961, and (d) the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971. The course will also teach students how theory applies to practise.

2 LP 0804 Practical Training Paper II - Alternative Dispute Resolution System

The course helps students learn and apply ADR procedures to assist their clients and society choose the most effective, just, and humane ones. Unresolved disagreements undermine public and private rights. ADR is advised and acceptable for this dire case. The course covers the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, the Legal Services Authority Act, 1987, and some international views and foreign award enforcement.

3 LP 1004 Practical Training Paper IV - Moot Court Exercise and Internship:

This course includes moot court, trial observation, and pre-trial preparations. The course teaches students about (a) court working and procedure, (b) applying substantive and procedural law to given facts, (c) court manners and discipline, (d) interview techniques and pre-trial preparations, (e) developing arguments and presentation skills, and (f) learning facts analysis and arrangement skills.

National Lok adalat

[Shivaji Nagar City Civil Court, Pune]

[Saturday, 7th May 2022]

Students of II- LL.B. and of IV- B.A.LL.B. have to learn Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, as a part of their syllabus of Practical Training Paper II- [Alternative Dispute Resolution System LP – 0804] This Act provides free and competent legal services to the weaker sections of the society and thereby to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities. To achieve the abovementioned object of the Act, every year Four National Lokadalats are organized by the District Legal Services Authority Shivaji nagar, Pune.

To know the functioning and also to observe the working of the ^{Lok} Local Adalat, Yashwantrao Chavan Law College organized a visit to Pune District City Civil Court at Shivaji nagar, Pune, on Saturday, 7/05/2022 at 11.00 am. As third National Lok-adalat was organized by District Legal Services Authority, Shivaji nagar, Pune, on Saturday, 7/05/2022.

Mr Pratap Sawant, Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, addressed the students. He informed the students about overall working and functioning of lok-adalats, Scheme of the Act, nature of the cases normally referred/taken up (pre-litigation and post-litigation), rate of disposal, settlement amount and overall experience of the public etc.

Mr Pravin Dedge and Mr Pandit, staff members of the legal aid cell, Pune were also present during this visit who helped the students during observing the various courts.

223 students of the above mentioned classes remained present for this visit. Two faculties namely Prof MS Shirlekar and Prof. Rahul Bibave accompanied the students during this visit.

ONLINE CLIENT COUNSELING

PROBLEM:

Nitu booked air tickets online from Chandigarh to Pune for her and her family members through the website Travelkaro.com for travel from Amritsar to Pune on 23.09.2021 for the purpose of attaining a wedding ceremony of her Cousin Meenal on 25.09.21 and also scheduled her return journey from Pune to Kolkata and the connecting flight of the opposite party AB Airlines M/s Spice jet Ltd. from Kolkata to Amritsar for 30.09.2021. An amount of Rs. 70,000/- was paid by Nitu through her debit card on 12.09.2021 for the said tickets. Nitu started her return journey on 30.09.2021 from Pune to Kolkata by Vindigo Airlines and reached the airport at Kolkata at 1.30 pm to board the connecting flight of the AB Airlines from Kolkata to Amritsar, scheduled for 20.40 hours. Nitu's family members were having the boarding passes for the said flight. However, they were shocked to know that the said flight of the AB Airlines had been cancelled. The AB Airlines did not provide any alternative arrangement to Nitu and her family for travel to New Delhi. The AB airlines in response to Nitu said that, "The passengers travelling in the airlines are governed by the terms of carriage, contained in the e-ticket, framed in accordance with Vindigo Carriage Rules. One of the clause of that Rule was that if the flight was cancelled or delayed, the airlines may assist the passengers to get to the destination, but shall not be liable in any way for the delay or cancellation. The learned counsel for the petitioner stated that the e-ticket issued to the passenger was a concluded contract between the parties and hence, they were bound to follow the terms and conditions of the said contract. The flight in question was cancelled due to operational and technical reasons, which were beyond the control of the AB Airlines."

Nitu was, therefore, forced to buy tickets for another flight, operated by the Net Airways from Kolkata to Mumbai, with connecting flight to Amritsar, departing at 20.40 hours from Kolkata. Nitu spent an amount of Rs. 80,000/- for five tickets for the said journey. Nitu and her family reached Amritsar by the said flight, but they missed the Tolvo bus, which was supposed to carry them to Chandigarh. It is stated that the Nitu and her family were scheduled to reach Amritsar at 22.50 hours on 30.09.2021, but due to the cancellation of the flight of the AB Airlines and travelling by another flight, they reached Amritsar at 5 am on 01.10.2021 and consequently, they were late in reaching Chandigarh. The ABs did not refund the fare charged from them for the cancelled flight, neither they provided another alternative flight. Advice and assist Nitu.

REPORT ON "ONLINE CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION"

DATE: 11/11/2021.

The LL.M Department of Yashwantrao Chavan Law College has organized the "Client Counselling Competition" on 11/11/2021 for the enhancement of Interpersonal and advocacy skills among the pupils.

Introduction:

Professional Legal Education should necessarily focus on the lawyering skills. Client counselling is a vital skill in which the students of law should be trained. One of the significant functions of a lawyer is to advise the people who seek assistance in knowing the legal implications of their actions. The lawyer is looked upon to facilitate decision making in certain critical legal matters. This function of the lawyer influencing and facilitating decisions is called counselling. Bar Council of India, the highest professional body of lawyers, has a key role in Professional Legal Education. It has drawn up a detailed scheme on practical training consisting of professional ethics, bar bench relations, contempt of court, moot court, pre-trial procedures, negotiations, interviewing and counselling, drafting of conveyances and pleadings, legal aid, public interest lawyering etc.

The process of counselling has two functions:

1. To help the person talk about, explore and understand his or her thoughts and feelings and workout that what he or she might do before taking action.
2. To help the person decide on his or her own solutions.

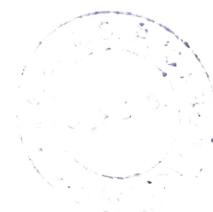

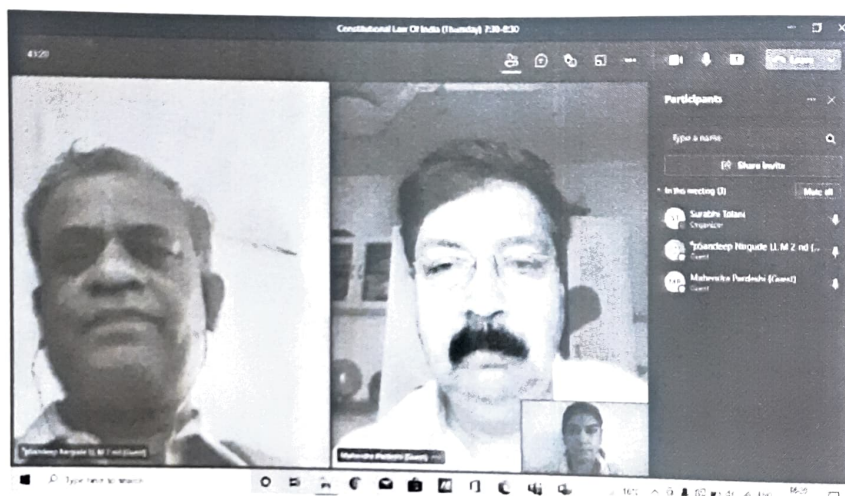

To meet with these needs the Department has organized the said competition.

Overview of the Competition:

Preliminary Round:

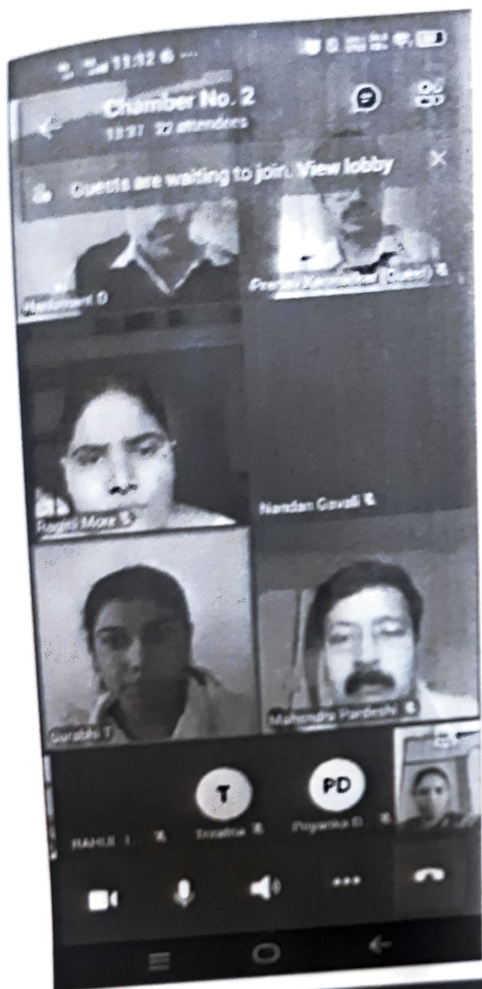

The second-year students of LLM were the participants in the said competition. The competition was divided into two rounds i.e. Preliminary and Final. The students were equally classified into three chambers. Each chamber was headed by a Judge who was the staff of LLM Department to judge and assess their performance. The Preliminary round was scheduled at 8:00 am to 10:30 am through Microsoft Teams an Online Platform. Two Hypothetical Problems were framed by the faculties for the Preliminary Round. The Judge of the chamber selected a pair of the students randomly and allotted the role either the Client or an Advocate on the spot. Depending upon the performance of the students the Judges evaluated them. One best Advocate and one best Client was selected from each Chamber in Preliminary Round to perform in final round.

Final Round:

The Final round was conducted through Microsoft Teams an Online Platform among three pairs selected in preliminary round which was scheduled at 11:00 am to 11:45 am. The separate Hypothetical Problem for final round was framed by the faculties and circulated it 10 min before the final round. All the faculty judges evaluated and assessed the students in this round. The Judges selected the pair of the students randomly and allotted the role of either the Client or an Advocate on the spot. Depending upon the performance of the students Mr. Ovhal Vishal was selected as the best Advocate and the Mr. Londhe Ramchandra was selected as the best Client in final round. The result was intimated accordingly. The students online submitted the report of this competition. this activity organized under the guidance of Dr. Gholap Shubhada Principal of our college.
