About Corporate Compliance Industry

The corporate world is full of opportunities. Along with opportunities comes responsibility – responsibility of compliance with various Labour, Environment and Commercial Laws. Failing to meet all compliance can result in serious consequences for a company. It not only makes the company vulnerable to lawsuits and fines, but may even lead to dissolving the company entirely.

It is this complexity of multiple laws that has also resulted in a steep increase in demand for legal professionals who can understand applicability of laws, interpret provisions, capture and implement real-time compliances.

Lexschool offers a unique advantage to law graduates to manage the company's Legal and Compliance risk. The Lexschool Certified Compliance Professional Course aims at providing quality trained professionals to corporates who can seamlessly implement successful corporate compliance management programs.

About Lexschool

We understand the gap between academics and industry and our courses are designed to bridge this existing gap. Lexschool works on the principle of "By the Industry, For the Industry". The courses are designed in discussion with industry experts and are at par with on-the-job training provided by in-house corporate teams.

About Certified Corporate Compliance Professional Course

The course is specially designed to gain in-depth knowledge of Corporate Legal Compliances.

After completing this course, the candidate can:

- Identify applicability of key Labour, Environment and Commercial Laws and Compliances applicable to any Company

- Learn how Compliance Audits are carried out and Legal Updates are tracked
- Understand how IT enabled Compliance tools work

This course will help law graduates stand apart from other law graduates and open the following career avenues to them:
