Induction cum Freshers' Function

(2018-2019)

The college holds various programmes every year for the first year students of BALLB and LLB at the beginning of the academic year. This year it organized an Induction cum Freshers' Function on 5 October 2018 in the Seminar Hall of the college. All the first year students were invited to the function and almost three hundred fifty students remained present for it. In the induction, the principal shared the following information with the students.

1. The information of the institute
2. The information of the examination system
3. The information of various activities to be conducted in the academic year
4. The rules of attendance
5. The information of issues of ragging- The college held a session on the issues of ragging. The students were made aware of anti-ragging laws by the UGC, the state government and the judgment of the Supreme Court.
6. The introduction session- The first year students introduced themselves to each other mentioning their names, their native place, their discipline of education, and their hobbies.

This induction was followed by the freshers' function wherein students performed various cultural items such as singing, dancing, mimicry, quiz competitions and so forth.

The senior students also remained present for the function and actively participated in the function. They contributed a lot to the success of the programme. All the faculty members also remained present and they were introduced to the students. This programme helped the junior students to get acquainted with senior students and the environment in the college.

Mr Rahul Bibave and Mr Ravindra Patil (Assistant Professors) along the cultural team of students looked after the organization of the program under the guidance of the Principal and as per the direction of the UGC.

Workshop on Disaster Management

As a part of academic enrichment, the college organizes various academic programs for the students as well as peers. The college has organized a workshop on Disaster Management on 08/04/2022, Friday. The workshop consisted of two sessions dedicated to the importance of disaster Management.

The workshop was inaugurated at the august hands of Prin. Dr. Shubhada Gholap and she made brief Introductory remarks regarding the workshop. Guest was introduced by Prof. Mrs. Shirlekar

In the first session Col. V N Supanekar explained the policy framework and institutional mechanism for Disaster Management. In the beginning he explained various provisions under the Disaster Management Act of 2005. He stressed on importance of vigilance and preparedness which can effectively cope with disasters. He stated that for effective mitigation along with anticipation of risk, plan for its management and some skills are required. The skills can only be acquired through training. He elaborated that there was paradigm shift for regulation of disaster management. All disasters are considered as emergencies and not vice versa. Incidences can be controlled when treated urgently and can prevent disasters. Identification of risks places would prepare for disaster. For disaster management involvement of community is cardinal. The community may put pressure on government. The policy should be prepared not respond.

In the second session Mr Rajkumar, Inspector, 5th battalion, NDRF, Sudumbre conducted familiarisation exercise and community awareness program. He along with 7 members of battalion gave demonstrations for coping with disasters which would prepare the persons for emergencies.

Dr. Patil R A and Prof. Chalwadi were coordinators for the workshop. Total 196 students participated in the workshop.

Workshop on Disaster Management

2021-22

As a part of academic enrichment, the college organizes various academic programs for the students as well as peers. The college has organized a workshop on Disaster Management on 08/04/2022, Friday. The workshop consisted of two sessions dedicated to the importance of disaster Management.

The workshop was inaugurated at the august hands of Prin. Dr. Shubhada Gholap and she made brief Introductory remarks regarding the workshop. Guest was introduced by Prof. Mrs. Shirlekar

In the first session Col. V N Supanekar explained the policy framework and institutional mechanism for Disaster Management. In the beginning he explained various provisions under the Disaster Management Act of 2005. He stressed on importance of vigilance and preparedness which can effectively cope with disasters. He stated that for effective mitigation along with anticipation of risk, plan for its management and some skills are required. The skills can only be acquired through training. He elaborated that there was paradigm shift for regulation of disaster management. All disasters are considered as emergencies and not vice versa. Incidences can be controlled when treated urgently and can prevent disasters. Identification of risks places would prepare for disaster. For disaster management involvement of community is cardinal. The community may put pressure on government. The policy should be prepared not respond.

In the second session Mr Rajkumar, Inspector, 5th battalion, NDRF, Sudumbre conducted familiarisation exercise and community awareness program. He along with 7 members of battalion gave demonstrations for coping with disasters which would prepare the persons for emergencies.

Dr. Patil R A and Prof. Chalwadi were coordinators for the workshop. Total 196 students participated in the workshop.

On account of 'International Women's Day', our college organized a program on Saturday, 7th March 2020, at 10.00 am in class room number 103. At the commencement of this program Prof. MM Wanare introduced the students about the history and the object of this day. Later on ,on this occasion a documentary on 'Greatest Women in Indian History' and also an inspiring clip titled "Short Documentary on Women Empowerment in India", covering the efforts taken by the uneducated women from rural region from the State of Rajasthan through 'Micro Finance Group' and their success stories was screened, which was followed by an interaction. Few students and members of the teaching faculties expressed their views about the need of formal celebration of this day and thereby to change the mindset of everyone.

At the end of the program, principal, Dr. Shubhada Gholap, shared her views regarding need and importance of this day. In her speech she informed that, as this year's International Women's Day campaign has chosen the theme Each For Equal, which is drawn from the idea of collective individualism. "We are all parts of a whole," the campaign states. "Our individual actions, conversations, behaviors and mindsets can have an impact on our larger society." Collectively, we can make change happen. Collectively, we can each help to create a gender equal world."

The program was concluded by extending vote of thanks by Prof SK Sirsat. Near about 90 to 100 students of different classes were present for this program.
