Anti-Ragging Report

2021-22

The college has been sensitive regarding the issues of students. One of such issues is ragging. The college has set up an anti-ragging committee and anti-ragging squad to deal with this problem as per the Maharashtra Prohibition of Ragging Act 1999 and the notifications of the MHRD and the UGC.

The college holds an induction programme in every academic year and shares valuable information with the first year students of all degree courses in regard with the issue of ragging. In the academic year 2021-22, the college held freshers' programme and made the students aware of this issue in the induction session of this programme. Similarly it gave the students all the required details regarding ragging such as the committee name and contact details on its website.

The students are also required to submit their anti-ragging affidavits online (antiragging.in) and its compulsory for every student taking admission to the graduate courses in the institute.

The college has established the following anti-ragging committee.

Sr. No.	Name of the Members	Designation	Committee
1	Dr Shubhada Gholap	Principal	Chairperson
2	Mrs Madhuri Shirlekar	Associate Professor	Member
3	Mr S B Gadge	Rector (Boys Hostel)	Member
4	Mrs Girija Tikone	Rector (Girls Hostel)	Member
5	Mr Pramod Phadtare	Office Superintendent	Member
6	Mr Vaibhav Sapat	Student	Member
7	Ms Manisha Agarwal	Student	Member
8	Dr Ravindra Patil	Assistant Professor	Coordinator

The college has also set up an anti-ragging squad consisting of the following members.

Sr. No.	Name of the Members	Designation	Committee
1	Mrs Madhuri Shirlekar	Associate Professor	Member
2	Mr Pramod Phadtare	Office Superintendent	Member
3	Mrs Girija Tikone	Rector	Member
4	Dr Ravindra Patil	Assistant Professor	Coordinator

The squad carried out surprise raids in the hostels; however no incidents of ragging were found in the hostels. There are no cases of ragging in this academic year. The college also submitted the same sort of report to the university on its portal this year.
